

China Homelife to showcase thousands of textile and garment products at this year's show.

For the past three years, China Homelife has become renowned for providing an outstanding sourcing platform for quality textiles and garments in South Africa. Now in its fourth year, the sourcing fair will be showcasing thousands of textile and garment products ranging from trendy garments and high quality fabrics to zips, buttons and haberdashery items. Top quality exhibitors will be onsite to meet with buyers and will be able to supply you with the latest fashion items available to the global market. Furthermore, the textile and garments section will include products such as; men's wear, women's wear, kids wear, casual wear, sweaters, sportswear, outdoor wear, bedding, kitchen, home fabrics, blankets to name a few.

Entrance is to China Homelife and China Machinex is free and buyers can pre-register in advance via <http://za.chinahomelife247.com/expo/>

Explore, Discover and Connect – it is beyond an exhibition.

We look forward to seeing you there.
